

EXTRA! EXTRA! READ ALL ABOUT IT!

Spotted in Scottsdale recently, Extra correspondent and reality show host Adrianna Costa getting married at the Four Seasons Scottsdale Resort at Troon North. We caught up with her to ask how she chose the locale...

"We're obsessed with the desert and there is no better, more calming place on earth than the Sonoran desert—which is the backdrop for Scottsdale. After scouting a number of different Arizona properties, Four Seasons Scottsdale took the cake. From the stunning grounds to the impeccable service, and of course, the killer suites complete with plunge pools—Four Seasons is truly unbeatable! So much so that we cut our honeymoon short in Cabo to finish it back at the Four Seasons Scottsdale. It truly is our home away from home," she says.

When asked to choose three words about her new hubby, she replied: "Just three? Oh my goodness—well, he is passionate, full-of-life, and an absolute genius. Really, he's just perfection!"

FASHIONABLE BEAUTY PRODUCTS

Kooba may be known for its handbags, but now it's teamed up with beauty company AHAVA to create the Kooba for AHAVA Limited Edition Set. Just launched, the collaboration results in this cute clutch in one of Kooba's natural and classic prints, which holds three of AHAVA's bestsellers—Mineral Body Exfoliator, Mineral Body Lotion, and a travel-size Mineral Hand Cream. $45 at Nordstrom, 480.946.4111.

T. COOK'S GETS A NEW CHEF, LOOK

Fans of T. Cook's will have to hold off on their cravings for a bit—the famed restaurant, located at Royal Palms Resort & Spa, is currently closed and undergoing an interior redesign of the restaurant and bar. Chef Paul McCabe also signed on as the executive chef.

The restaurant will reopen in September. We can't wait! www.royal-palmshotel.com/restaurant.

Lucky 13!

For Sedona, the number 13 has proven to be lucky, not unlucky! The city was just ranked as one of Travelers' Choice 2013 Top 25 Destinations in the United States. Aren't we all lucky to live in a state with such amazing locales?

3 SPOTS TO SEE

Scottsdale is known for its dedication to the arts—from the arts district in Downtown to freeway art and public art sculptures, there are many ways to indulge your inner art enthusiast. And now, Scottsdale is becoming known for another genre of art—murals. They're cropping up all over town. Here, three to check out.

Outside vintage clothing store Fashion by Robert Black, check out the new cowgirl mural by artists Ernest Roberts and Tim Medina.

In an alley a few blocks from Scottsdale Stadium, you'll find a giant baseball by the same two artists.

Outside of Citizen Public House restaurant is a new mural called "Water by Design" by Sean Griffin.
