

Jaydine's Pick of the Week: Sofia Vintage

By Jaydine Sayer | CS magazine | February 24, 2010

Get hand-selected vintage clothing and jewelry at Sofia Vintage.

As any gal or guy about town knows, one doesn't have to be in L.A. to hit up an Oscar soiree or two. (In fact, we've been getting several notifications for some super posh parties—check back later for details).

To prep for your own turn down the red carpet, I recommend heading to Sofia Vintage this Saturday from noon-7PM for a get-ready-for-the-Oscars event. The Gold Coast boutique is the destination for vintage formal attire, from glamorous Halston and Valentino numbers to tuxes and suits for men (along with elegant bow ties, cuff links and tie pins).

Co-owner Ashely Zisook and L.A.-based TV host Adrianna Costa will help shoppers find the right look for the occasion, and will dish on red carpet trends (pinks, nudes, old Hollywood glam) and offer up beauty tips while you can sip on Goose Island's Sofia beer.

If you've already got your dress and tux selected, stop in to peruse the stellar vintage jewelry collection. Zisook's favorite pieces right now? A gold double chain Chanel necklace with a big heart pendant and a Hermes gold horse cuff that "is to die for!"

Sofia Vintage, 1165 North Clark St., 312.640.0878, sofiavintage.com

<http://chicago.modernluxury.com/style/jaydine's-pick-week-sofia-vintage>